

Why work for us?

HISTORY OF HOWETT THORPE

Founded in 1988 by Greg Thorpe, Howett Thorpe has just celebrated its 30th anniversary.

During that time the company has built an enviable reputation with both clients and candidates for delivering an outstanding level of service. Consultants within Howett Thorpe and new Consultants joining benefit from the long-term relationships that have been established because of this.

We operate out of our head office in Farnham and our offices in Weybridge and Reigate, providing temporary and permanent recruitment services within Accountancy and HR at all levels.

THE FUTURE

Howett Thorpe is an exciting place to be as we have big plans for the future expansion of the business. With this expansion comes opportunities for development and increased earnings and being part of an amazing journey.

THE BENEFITS

Howett Thorpe has a transparent commission structure that enables all Consultants to see at a glance what commission they will earn from their billings. In addition to this quarterly commission we have quarterly incentives, annual and ad-hoc competitions. These include fun team trips, holidays and gifts.

There is a structure for promotion for everyone to work to which is clear and aspirational.

